FROM FARMERS TO BAKERS.

Paganini

AND ICE CREAM MAKERS

In 1990 Tomas Murphy began to make ice cream on his family farm in south Wexford. Over the years, Tomas has developed and grown the Paganini brand. Today, managed by Tomas' son Barry, this family business produces a wide selection of premium handcrafted desserts and ice cream in their facility in Co. Wexford.

Tomas and Barry, along with 35 staff are each dedicated to producing only the finest product to carry the Paganini mark.

"Our company motto 'From Farmers to Bakers and Ice Cream Makers' grounds us in our heritage. As farmers, we love the land and appreciate the quality of fresh ingredients produced here in Ireland. From the milk and cream produced by the grass-fed Murphy herd, to the wheat, eggs and Armagh Bramley apples we have a bounty to work with. Our passion lies in taking these superb raw materials and creating luxury handcrafted desserts suitable for all occasions."

Paganini are hugely passionate about innovation and in 2013 won the Bord Bia Irish Food Award for Innovation for their FitFuel brand of protein ice creams.

Gortrush are committed to partnering with Paganini, a local company using the finest ingredients to produce a wide range of luxury cheesecakes, ice cream, gateaux and tray-bakes.

Made in
Co. Wexford.
